8 am to 12 pm

3 BOOTCAMPS AVAILABLE

FIRST AID

Learn basic first aid, CPR and health related careers.

This fun and hands-on bootcamp will teach participants how to recognize signs of an emergency and how to properly respond to one by providing first aid care. Topics will cover: Hand hygiene, personal protective equipment (PPE), checking an injured or ill person, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), bandaging, first aid for choking, tourniquet use, stress management techniques and various careers in health. The bootcamp will also have guest speakers from diverse health fields.

GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS

MapCraft- Geographic Information Systems & Drones

Everyone uses maps to get where we need to go, but who creates them? Businesses use maps to deliver and receive food, medicine, and all kinds of materials. Biologists use maps to monitor wildlife and habitats. Maps allow people to quickly respond to fires and emergencies. Discover how maps guide us across the globe and in your neighborhood. Have fun with interactive and hands-on activities. Create three-dimensional maps. Learn to use a compass! Observe and collect information about our world then craft that information into maps for others to use and follow. Crafting maps will be a blast...MapCraft!

BIONICS

Bionic Projects

Students will work in teams to assemble and program bionic inspired projects. The projects emphasize creativity, innovation, and problem solving
